

CITATION BASICS

	Parenthetical format citation (in the brackets)	Citation in text
One author	(Druker, 2009)	Druker (2009)
Two authors	(Kenneth & Traver, 2019)	Kenneth and Traver (2019)
Three or more authors	(Ulrich et al., 2018)	Ulrich et al. (2018)
Group author with abbreviation	First citation: (United Nations World Tourism Organization [UNWTO], 2022) Subsequent citations: (UNWTO, 2022)	First citation: United Nations World Tourism Organization (UNWTO, 2022) Subsequent citations: UNWTO (2022)
Group author without abbreviation	(National Institute of Justice, 2018)	National Institute of Justice (2018)
Authors with the same surname	(J. Gordon, 2017) (L. Gordon, 2015) Include the author's initials.	J. Gordon (2017) L. Gordon (2015)
Works with no identified author	( Business , 2018) ("Future of work", 2019) Cite the first 2–5 words of the title. Use double quotation marks around the title of an article, chapter, or web page and italicize the title of book, periodical or report.	The book Business (2018)... In the article "Future of work" (2019)....
Two or more works citations	(Magd, 2021; Matsumura, 2018; Ramanna, 2020) List authors in alphabetical order. (Ulrich, 2010, 2011) (Kaptein, 2011a, 2011b) Identify works by the same author with the same publication date by the letters a, b, c and so forth, after the year.	Magd (2021), Matsuma (2018) and Ramanna (2020) Ulrich (2010, 2011) Kaptein (2011a, 2011b)
Law	(Labour code of the Republic of Lithuania, 2017)	Labour code of the Republic of Lithuania (2017)

* Author – author, editor, corporations, producer, artist and etc.