

Quick Guide

Registration is not required to use VIKO Library services. To borrow books, you must present a valid Lithuanian student ID or personal identity card.

Faculty Libraries: Contacts and Opening Hours.

Library information resources: printed and electronic books, periodicals, and international databases.

Remote access to electronic resources - using the VPN service. Download and install the FortiClient app \(VPN_instructions\).

You can search for information in the VIKO Virtual Library \(VB\) or individually in each database.

Loan periods for books range from 1 week to one semester. Some publications are available for use in the library only and may be borrowed for home in exceptional cases (please ask a librarian). You can see the loan period in the VIKO Virtual Library \(VB\) under Request and Locations in the book description.

You can reserve books in advance by logging into your reader account through VIKO Virtual Library.

It is mandatory to return books on time. You can extend the loan period through your reader account in the VIKO Virtual Library or by contacting the faculty library staff.

If books are not returned on time, late fines will apply. Fines must be paid to VIKO bank account. A copy of the payment must be sent to the faculty library by email.

The library offers online training on information search, citation, and other topics. You can participate in group training sessions or attend individual consultations.
